Representative Geraldine Ferraro
House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Representative and Democratic Nominee for Vice President Geraldine Ferraro,

I am very happy and excited over Mondale's choice of you as a running mate for this year's Presidential Election. Your speech at the Democratic convention was inspiring. I am very happy to hear that you are a Roman Catholic who has a deep respect and love for the Faith.

Your statement about the things or issues that really separate the two parties I found to be very interesting.

"But in the end what separates the two parties in this election campaign is whether we use the gift of life - for others or only ourselves"

My hope is that your respect for life extends to issues dealing with Abortion, Pornography, and Food distribution to third world countries. I would welcome

Some Clarity as to where you and the democratic party platform stands on these issues.

May God Bless and guide your efforts especially during this election year. Thank You

Sincerely,
